

Tell us about your journey at Vivriti

My journey at Vivriti has been a path of growth & learning, marked by dedication and the pursuit of excellence. At every step, I have contributed to the company's vision while expanding my horizons, blending innovation with teamwork.

Why is Vivriti the place to be and what sets us apart?

Knowledge sharing & learning together have been an essential part of the company culture. Excellence and innovation are some of the core values at Vivriti, and this is only one of the reasons that Vivriti is one of the best companies to work for.

Chandwani Gaurav

Senior Manager - Debt Capital Market Operations
Vivriti Capital

How technological landscape has transformed the debt capital operations in the fintech space?

As the debt collection industry evolves, technology is expected to play a crucial role in driving the entire narrative for reimagining debt collections. Lenders are beginning to realize the positive impact that this transformation can make on their businesses, and Vivriti is at the forefront of this change.

How does Vivriti handle operational risk management to safeguard its customers?

At Vivriti, there are mainly two aspects of handling operational risk management:

- (i) Strengthening Internal Controls: This includes implementing robust internal controls and regular audit processes to ensure compliance and efficiency.
- (ii) Technology Upgradation: This entails investing in advanced technology solutions to enhance operational efficiency and reduce the risk of system failures.

What message would you like to share with the new joiners?

---

Vivriti is a great place to start your career in debt markets. It's driven by a sense of purpose and the desire to make a positive impact. It also focuses on sustainability, social responsibility, and other relevant aspects.

